Be the Light: TEC Celebrates Hanukkah

Our TEC community of friends and family will be coming together for a series of fun celebrations in honor of Hanukkah.

5:15 PM – 7:00 PM

Fun for Kids

5:15 pm in the Wolfson

Join us for kid-friendly activities, games and coin toss to raise money for Coins for Courage. Create Studios will be there to provide arts & crafts! Enjoy latkes provided by Men's Club, and sufganiyot provided by WOTEC.

Menorah Lighting

6:45pm in Paskow Sanctuary

Rabbi Averbach will oversee the lighting of TEC's Menorah, along with songs and merriment.

7:00 PM – 9:30 PM

Kabbalat Shabbat

7:00 pm in the Sanctuary

After the candle lighting, stay with us for our Kabbalat Shabbat services! What better way to end the week with a spiritually uplifting service.

Oneg, Israeli Music, Dancing & More

Directly following service in Spiegel Hall

The celebration continues in Spiegel Hall, where there will be an oneg, a latke bar with awesome toppings, hot chocolate and more, as well as Israeli dancing and Israeli music.

Celebrate with us, and be the light this season!
